

Curriculum vitae

Michael Steinicke

Born: 21st of January 1972

Living in Hvidovre, Denmark

Married, 1 son, 1 daughter

Professor of procurement law at the University of Southern Denmark

Academic degrees and positions:

1998: Master in law and business administration (University of Aalborg)

1998: Ph.d.-scholar, University of Southern Denmark

2001: Received my Ph.d., assistant professor, University of Southern Denmark

2003: Associate professor, University of Southern Denmark

2004: Professor, Department of Law, University of Southern Denmark.

Administrative experience:

Member of different academic boards and committees at the University of Southern Denmark.

Since 2007: Member of the Board in the Danish Association for Procurement Law.

2006-2009: Head of Department, Department of Law, University of Southern Denmark

Teaching experience:

EU law

Advanced EC Competition law

European Community Law

Public Procurement law

Market Law

Have made a large number of presentations internationally on various topics, primarily on public procurement and related issues.

Affiliation:

Affiliated to Delacourdanía Law firm as an external consultant in public procurement and competition law issues.

Areas of interest:

Procurement law in the widest sense

Competition law, market law

Publications:

Has written, co-written or co-edited 14 books on numerous issues, primarily regarding public procurement and related topics. These include a Ph.D.-thesis on public procurement and the free movement of goods and the most comprehensive book on public procurement in Scandinavia (a commentary on the procurement directives, 1492 pages).

Has written a large number of articles on public procurement, EU issues, competition law and related topics, some in English some in Danish.